NOTEWORTHY ACTIVITIES:

As we move through this virus our Department has continued to do their duties with great dedication. While most agencies have seen a downward trend in calls ours have maintained, based largely on the Officers dedication to the community and self-initiated community service. We have also seen an increase in calls associated with mental health issues largely brought on by isolation.

We have struggled with keeping our Officers stocked with PPE, particularly masks, but thanks to the generosity of several community members and some aggressive searching on the internet we are in a pretty stable place at this time.

I would offer a heartfelt "Thank-you" to our Community. There has been an outpouring of support in the forms of PPE that has been donated, to pizza or cookies, etc. Our greatest appreciation goes to the folks who have used a little extra patience in rather exasperating times. Everybody is feeling the effects of being cooped up too long.

...and finally, a thought for the times.
